This private, gated East Coast Traditional home featuring six bedrooms and five bathrooms is truly enchanting. Upstairs has four bedrooms plus a wonderful playroom or media room that opens out to the front balcony overlooking the fully landscaped secluded front yard. The master suite includes a fireplace and bathroom with steam shower and features French doors that lead out to a balcony that extends the entire length of the house. Downstairs there are two bedrooms, a formal dining room and informal dining area, living room with fireplace and a sun filled family room which opens to the backyard. The galley style kitchen features top of the line stainless steel appliances. Whether you choose to enjoy the shade of the covered patio or be warmed with the sun by the pool and spa, this backyard was designed for both entertaining and relaxation. This beautiful home in a private setting is conveniently located in the heart of Brentwood.
